

Prize for Freedom 2021 - Call for nominations now open

Tue, Mar 30, 2021 at 11:27 AM

Dear Liberal Colleagues,

Each year, Liberal International presents the Prize for Freedom to an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the advancement and promotion of human rights and political freedoms.

On behalf of the President of Liberal International, Dr. Hakima El Haité, and LI Human Rights Committee Chairperson, Astrid Thors, I am pleased to announce that the nomination process for LI Prize for Freedom 2021 is now open.

Below you will find the instructions for nominating a candidate along with the nomination deadline of 31 May 2021.

PLEASE READ THE ATTACHED FILE

In case you have any questions about the nomination process please do not hesitate to contact the LI Secretariat (office@liberal-international.org).

2021 will mark the 38th year that the Prize has been awarded. To find out more about the Prize for Freedom and our Laureates, visit the LI website

Kind Regards,

William Townsend | Secretary-General
Liberal International | 1 Whitehall Place, London – SW1A 2HD

www.liberal-international.org

Liberal International · 1 Whitehall PI, London, London SW1A 2HD, United Kingdom.
You can also keep up with Liberal International on Twitter or Facebook.